Syracuse, Rochester, Watertown, Ithaca, New York — August 3, 2026 — Bowers Accountants & Advisors is pleased to announce it has been named among the 2026 IPA 200 firms, earning the No. 165 ranking on INSIDE Public Accounting's (IPA) annual IPA 500 list. The recognition reflects a significant advancement from the firm's No. 242 ranking in 2025, underscoring its continued growth and commitment to client service.

INSIDE Public Accounting (IPA) publishes the IPA 500 each year, ranking the 500 largest accounting firms in the United States based on net revenue. For Bowers Accountants & Advisors, the recognition represents more than growth in size. It is an opportunity to celebrate the dedication of its team members, the trust of its clients, and the strong relationships that have fueled the firm's success.

The firm's rise of 77 positions in the national rankings highlights its ongoing investment in talent, technology, and innovative solutions designed to help clients navigate an increasingly complex business environment. As Bowers continues to expand its capabilities and geographic reach, it remains focused on delivering personalized guidance and exceptional service.

"Reaching this milestone is a testament to the hard work of our people and the lasting confidence of our clients," said Joe Mocciaro, Managing Partner. "Their trust has fueled our growth and inspired us to continually raise the bar in the service we provide. We are grateful for the strong partnerships we've established and remain focused on helping our clients succeed while staying true to the values that have defined our firm for decades."
